

Member Code of Ethics

NBH has set forth a code of ethics for all of its active members to follow. This document is required to be signed prior to issuing membership to an applicant. The purpose of the NBH code of ethics is to provide its members with professional accountability to their clients, colleagues and community. Members are held to the highest professional ethical standards and are expected to uphold the code of ethics in all their professional transactions. By signing the code of ethics, members are subject to consequences including a non-refundable termination of membership if these ethical codes are broken and/or the NBH feels the member is misrepresenting the organization.

Code of Ethics

As a professional member of the NBH, I willingly agree to comply with the following statements;

- I will comply with any and all state and federal regulations in regards to certifications and/or licensing for my given profession prior to providing services to consumers.
- I will advertise my services honestly with prospective clients.
- I will seek professional experts that are beyond my qualification if the services/project requires the consultation.
- I will only utilize the approved equipment to conduct my professional services.
- I will be honest with consumers, providing them with professional recommendation/advised based solely on their needs and will not knowingly recommend services that are unnecessary for personal financial gain.
- I will keep up-to-date with the latest industry news and methodology. I will commit to continually educating myself in regards to the profession.
- To the best of my ability, I will educate my clients on the industry and professional protocols to ensure they are well informed consumers.
- I will provide my clients with the highest level of customer services, professionally addressing any and all consumer concerns.
- I will accurately represent the NBH and all affiliates.
